Lloyd George Talked to Baker, Who Then Went to France

LONDON IMPRESSED, SAYS THE DAILY MAIL

It Declares That the American Contribution Is of Seasoned Regulars

Washington, April 6.—How America entered the battle of Picardy is told by the London Daily Mail, which says Pershing's offer to Foch followed Lloyd George's personal request to Secretary Baker for United States troops. Mr. Baker as a result of the conference with the British premier crossed to France, visited General Pershing, who nuhesitatingly assented to the plan, and then the general went to Foch. The Daily Mail declares that the forces furnished are "seasoned United States army regu-
